

Book Launch and Symposium

Multicultural Australia: Its Literature and Representation

Diamond Dog: Contemporary Australian Short Stories
-- Reflections on Multicultural Society --

Date: May 30, 2008

Time: 18:30-21:00

Venue: Hillside Terrace Bldg. F*

Admission fee: 1,000yen

*Hillside Terrace is a 3 minute-walk from Daikanyama Station on Tokyu Toyoko Line (see <http://www.hillside terrace.com/access/index.html>).

Opening Remarks

Bruce Miller (Minister-Counselor (Political), Australian Embassy)

Keynote Address

Kate Darian-Smith

(Professor, The Australian Centre, The University of Melbourne)

Symposium

Chair: Yasue Arimitsu (Professor, Doshisha University)

Mathew Condon (writer)

Sunil Badami (writer)

David Carter (Visiting Professor, The Center for Pacific and American Studies, The University of Tokyo)

Shuzo Koyama (Director, Suita City Museum)

Ann McGrath (Director, The Centre for Indigenous History,
The Australian National University)

Wataru Sato (Associate Professor, Ritsumeikan University)

*simultaneous translation is available.

The symposium is supported by the Australia-Japan Foundation.

For reservations and information:

please email to Gendaikikakushitu, Ogura <y-ogura@yha.att.ne.jp> or call <03-3461-5082>